HOW TO SET YOUR GARBAGE CART, RECYCLING CART, YARD WASTE, AND TRASH

GARBAGE CART (BAGGED)

Household garbage including food waste and trash.

RECYCLING CART

Cardboard & Paper Bags * Telephone Books * Plastic Jugs * Newspaper * Steel & Tin Cans * Magazines & Catalogs * Junk Mail & Office Paper * Household Plastics (#3-7).

BAGGED LEAVES & GRASS

Do not mix with bulky trash. If it is placed in bags it will be serviced on your regular trash service day. Place next to your garbage can.

BULKY TRASH

Items that are too bulky/heavy to fit in the garbage can: examples include automobile parts, furniture, camper tops, seats, etc.

WHITE GOODS

Large electrical goods used domestically such as refrigerators, and washing machines, typically white in color.

NO HAZARDOUS WASTE ALLOWED

No household and hazardous waste are allowed in the cart or curbside (electronics, chemicals, paint, batteries).

NO CONTRACTORS TRASH

Large trees and woody waste placed at the curb by a tree service or contractor will not be picked up by Pelican Waste. It is the responsibility of the tree service to haul away the cut trees and limbs. If the contractor refuses or fails to do so, the home owner must haul away the material.

IMPORTANT REMINDER:

Since we will be changing to semi-automatic trucks, please be sure that handles of the can FACE THE ROAD so that we can successfully pick up your garbage.
